

www.archives.gov/ogis

Miriam Nisbet, OGIS Director, NARA – miriam.nisbet@nara.gov

FOIA = accountability through transparency = democracy

FOIA reform in US since 1966

- exemptions from disclosure
- fees
- time limits
- law enforcement
- technology

US Gov information inflation

- 30 billion e-mails each year
- multimedia documentation
- photographs
- maps
- databases
- audio and video recordings
- Web 2.0 applications

Can we . . .

manage records now for
agency business,
congressional oversight,
litigation or FOIA?

preserve forever, if historical?

NO RECORDS MANAGEMENT?

NO ACCESS!

U.S. FOIA reform 2007

- Dispute resolution
- Customer service
- Executive responsibility

U.S. FOIA reform 2007

(1) Systemic review for improvements

U.S. FOIA reform 2007

(2) Dispute resolution:

OGIS

+

FOIA Public Liaisons

Open Government initiative

- President's memos Jan 2009 – openness & FOIA
- OG Directive Dec 2009
- Agency Open Gov plans April '10, updated Apr 2012

Open Gov plans – “leading practices”

- agency-wide training, e.g., Fed Records Act and FOIA
- excellence in FOIA administration
- cooperation among all key players (records managers, FOIA, legal, etc.)

- data.gov
- recovery.gov
- www.agency.gov/open
- foia.gov
- FOIA portal

Will FOIA become unnecessary? (No.)

“harness new technologies”
+
culture change

Contact OGIS:

www.ogis.archives.gov

OGIS@nara.gov

(202) 741-5770

(877) 684-6448

blogs.archives.gov/foiablog